About the Workshop

This workshop will equip interpreters of all levels of experience to operate in the unique features of American Sign Language and distinguish it from English.

Workshop participants will learn:

- contextualization
- seven expansion techniques
- prosody
- how utterance boundaries are used in discourse

Through hands on practice the knowledge base learned will enable interpreters to communicate in full, complete and clearly expressed concepts.

Accommodations

To request an interpreter please contact Lottie Smith at lsmith@paraquad.org two weeks prior to workshop.
